ATLANTA DREAM | MEDIA

CONTACTS

For media information, credential/interview requests or questions, please contact Dan Goldberger at 646-872-7568 or dan.goldberger@atlantadream.net in the Dream Media Relations Department.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests should be submitted in writing to the Dream Media Relations Department at least 36-48 HOURS PRIOR to the game you wish to cover (3 p.m. on Friday for Saturday or Sunday games) via e-mail.
NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Credentials are issued to accredited members of the media who are on-assignment to cover a specific game. Please confirm all credentials with the Dream Media Relations Department prior to arriving at McCamish Pavilion. Credentials may be picked up at the primary media entrance beginning 2.5 hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times and are non-transferable.

MEDIA DIRECTIONS & PARKING - McCAMISH PAVILION

Parking is NOT GUARANTEED for all credentialed media. Media members that receive parking must print parking pass prior to attending the Dream game they are covering. Directions to media parking will be on the media parking pass. If you have any questions, please email dan.goldberger@atlantadream.net.

DIRECTIONS TO McCAMISH PAVILION

Going South on I-75: Take exit 250 (16th St./14th St./10th St.), and follow through light at 14th St. Stay to the right and follow to 10th St., where the McCamish Pavilion is straight ahead. Turn right to access parking areas other than the main arena lot.
Going South on I-85: Exit at 17th St. (exit 84), stay to the left and follow ramp all the way to 10th St. The McCamish Pavilion will be in front of you. Take right on 10th St., then left on Fowler St. access parking on 8th St. or arena lot.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

Credentialed media are asked to enter through the west entrance off of Fowler Street. Media Will Call will be located at the west entrance ticket booth off of Fowler St.

MEDIA SEATING/WORKROOM

Media seating and workspace at McCamish Pavilion is in the upper level, section 211.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with the WNBA policy, the Dream's and the visitor's locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending one hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access will be granted from 5:30-6 p.m. for a 7 p.m. game). Locker rooms are opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO PHOTOGRAPHS OR CELL PHONE USE ALLOWED DURING MEDIA LOCKER ROOM ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Pregame press notes, media guides and line-up sheets will be available in the interview room prior to each game. Game statistics will be distributed to the working media twice during each half, as well as halftime and postgame. Postgame quotes and notes are distributed as quickly as possible following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. For the safety of the players and in accordance with league rules, photographers must remain seated at least four feet behind the baseline at all times and have a rubber lense cap in place (per WNBA/NBA rules). Use of a flash is prohibited. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

PRACTICE POLICY

The Dream will typically practice at the GSU Sports Arena from 11 a.m.-1 p.m.. The final 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media. Coaches and players will be available for brief interviews immediately after practice. Please contact the Dream Media Relations Department to confirm practice times, sites and the availability of players and coaches.

MARY BROCK

Owner

Mary Rockett Brock joined the Atlanta Dream's ownership group in January 2011 and is an avid sports advocate. Brock serves on the Boards of Trustees of Usher's New Look Foundation and Spelman College, the Boards of Directors of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Metro Atlanta Chamber and Horizons National, a program for underserved youth that focuses on the learning achievement gap with 36 affiliates across the country, and the Board of Advisors of the Winship Cancer Institute. Mary and her husband John have funded chairs in biomedical engineering at Emory University and Georgia Institute of Technology with a particular emphasis on cancer research. They support scholarships in the Department of Chemical Engineering and have been active supporters of Georgia Tech Athletics, where they funded the major leadership gift for the Georgia Tech "John and Mary Brock Football Facility." A native of Moss Point, MS, Mary graduated summa cum laude from Miami University of Ohio, earning her Bachelor of Science in Science and Math Education and her Masters of Science Education in Curriculum Development. The Brocks, who grew up together on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, were married 45 years ago while John was a student at Georgia Tech, and moved to Atlanta eight years ago. Previously, they lived in Wilton, CT, and Cincinnati, OH, and a 10-year stint in Europe, living in Brussels, Belgium, and London. They have three children - Rebecca, John IV and Major - and five grandchildren - John V, Everett Mary, Leighton Annise, Lily Anise and Alexis Noelle.

KELLY LOEFFLER

Owner

Kelly Loeffler is Senior Vice President of Corporate Communications, Marketing and Investor Relations at Intercontinental Exchange, Inc. (NYSE: ICE). She is responsible for Intercontinental Exchange's investor relations program, public relations, corporate communications and media relations, global marketing including brand strategy, events and sustainability. Prior to joining ICE in 2002, Loeffler managed investor relations at Crossroads Investment Advisers, L.P., a private equity firm. She held equity research roles at William Blair & Company and Citi Global Asset Management. Loeffler began her career in the automotive industry, holding operations and marketing roles at Toyota Motor Sales, USA. Loeffler is also co-owner and co-chairman of the WNBA Atlanta Dream, the first women-owned professional sports team in Georgia. As a result of her own positive experiences gained through athletic participation, she is an advocate of combining education and sports to contribute to the success of young people from the classroom to the workplace. Loeffler is a Board Trustee for the Georgia Research Alliance and a member of the Boards of Grady Memorial Health Corporation, the Metropolitan Atlanta Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and Skyland Trail. She also serves on the Advisory Board of the Gene Siskel Film Center in Chicago. Loeffler earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Illinois and an MBA at the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business at DePaul University. She is a CFA charterholder.

Theresa Wenzel

President

Wenzel, a 21-year sports-industry veteran, spent the previous 10 years prior to her role with the Dream as a top athletic administrator at Georgia Tech, joining the Yellow Jackets in 2005 before being elevated to the position of Senior Women's Administrator in 2006. She was honored as the 2011 Administrator of the Year by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA).

"Theresa has been a tireless advocate for women's sports, and particularly women's basketball, for her entire career – as a player, as a coach and as an administrator," WBCA Executive Director Danielle M. Donehew said.

During her tenure at Georgia Tech, which began in 2005, Wenzel oversaw the women's basketball, golf, softball, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's track and field and volleyball programs. Under her supervision, the Yellow Jackets women's tennis team captured the 2007 NCAA National Championship.

"Theresa Wenzel is a great leader and motivator," Georgia Tech women's basketball head coach MaChelle Joseph said. "She is a mentor that brings out the best in those around her. The Atlanta Dream has made a terrific hire. Theresa's work ethic and commitment to inspiring and supporting those around her will be felt throughout the Dream organization."

Wenzel was also the athletic department's non-academic liaison to the Office of Student Affairs while at Tech and was a member of numerous committees including the Georgia Tech Women's Resource Center Advisory Board, the Title IX Compliance Committee, the GTAA Compliance and Equity Committee, the ACC Women's Basketball Committee, ACC Softball Committee and the ACC Women's Tennis Committee.

Prior to arriving in Atlanta, Wenzel served as the Assistant Athletic Director before being promoted to Associate AD for Business Operations at Siena College in Loudonville, N.Y. She also handled the head coaching duties for the Saints women's golf team until her departure in 2005, guiding Siena to five consecutive Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) titles (2001-05).

In addition, she served as Siena's intramural director and assistant facilities director for one year.
Wenzel began her career in college athletics at Canisius College where she held the position of assistant women's basketball coach for three seasons (1994-97).

A basketball letter-winner at Marquette University, Wenzel earned her bachelor's degree in business administration before later earning a master's degree in sport administration from Canisius College.

Cheryl LaFoy

Vice President of Business and Event Operations

Cheryl LaFoy joined the Atlanta Dream staff in May of 2016 as the Vice President of Business and Event Operations. In her role, she oversees all aspects of business for the organization, including the marketing, ticketing, corporate partnerships and finance departments in addition to facility relationships and game operations.

LaFoy joined the Dream following a 13-year stint with the Georgia Tech Athletic Association (GTAA), lastly serving as the Director of Event Operations for the Yellow Jacket program from 2013-16. Prior to that, she managed the opening of two facilities and served as an assistant director of event operations after spending six years as the assistant director of media relations.

In addition to her role on campus, LaFoy served as GTAA's primary liaison with the NCAA and ACC as it related to championships hosted by the Institute, serving as the tournament director for three NCAA Championships (2016 DI M/W Swimming and Diving, 2013 DI Men's Golf) and overseeing the game operations for the 2013 NCAA DI Men's Final Four. She also managed three conference championships, another NCAA Men's Basketball regional, and a USTA regional.

A 2002 graduate of Georgia Tech, LaFoy, formerly Cheryl Watts, is married to Matthew LaFoy and together they have two sons.

Dan Goldberger

Director of Digital Media and Marketing

Dan Goldberger is in his third season with the Atlanta Dream, serving as the Director of Digital Media and Marketing. He oversees the day-to-date operations of the marketing and communication departments for the Dream.

Prior to coming to the Dream, Goldberger enjoyed time at the Fox Theatre, Fox Sports South and the Georgia Tech Athletic Association.

Bailey Randolph

Director of Corporate Partnerships

Bailey Randolph is entering her third season as Director of Corporate Partnerships for the Atlanta Dream. Prior to her current role, Randolph worked for AIM Consulting for three years leading both inside and outside sales nationwide. A former student-athlete, she was a four-year starter for the Georgia Tech volleyball team and played three seasons professionally in Europe.

Kelly Lee

Director of Finance & Human Resources

Kelly Lee joined the Dream as Director of Finance and Human Resources in January 2018. Kelly Lee returned to the Georgia Tech Athletic Association in February 2015 as a senior accountant after previously serving as a graduate assistant in the sports information department at Tech from 1999-2001.

Prior to her return to Georgia Tech, Lee served as the manager of ticket operations and revenue generation at Brown University from 2012-14.

Her previous positions include a return to her alma mater in 2010 to serve as the business manager for the Ole Miss Athletic Association Foundation and four years as the director of business and ticket operations at the College of Charleston.

Before beginning her career in college athletics, Lee spent three years as a high school athletic administrator, coach and educator at North Cobb Christian School in Kennesaw, Ga.

Lee, an Atlanta, Ga., native, is a 1999 graduate of the University of Mississippi. She received a master's degree in 2001 from Georgia State University.

She, her husband, Ashley, and their two Boykin Spaniels, Jazzy and Zaela, reside in Mableton, Georgia.

Rene Chatfield

Director of Ticket Sales & Community Engagement

Rene Chatfield joined the Atlanta Dream in May of 2017. In her new role as Director of Ticket Sales and Community Engagement, Rene will help lead a group of talented group ticket sales executives and continue to expand the Atlanta Dream presence in the local community.

Before joining the Atlanta Dream Rene worked directly with corporate partners for the Boys & Girls Clubs of America national headquarters totaling over $35 million dollars. She also currently serves as the Director of basketball for the Mountain Park Athletic Association located in Gwinnett County. Rene has over 15 years of experience in sports television, marketing, and youth development. As a mentor to girls for over 20 years, Rene is very passionate and wants our youth of America aspire to becoming amazing leaders of the future.

Rene, a former collegiate athlete later turned professional basketball player enjoys using her experiences to inspire those around her. She is married to Eric Chatfield and has three sons, her oldest son Andre attends Harvard University and plays on the basketball team.

Chris Saunders

Director of Ticket Sales & Services

Chris Saunders joined the Atlanta Dream in October 2017 as the Director of Ticket Sales and Services.

She came the Dream after a successful run as the Group Assistant Sales Manager at the Fox Theatre in Atlanta. During her time, she helped the Fox Theatre take the top spot out of 28 markets in group sales for Broadway Across America shows for five consecutive years, selling over $5.5 million in group sales.

Prior to the Fox Theatre, Saunders was a Group Sales Associate with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra.

Originally from New York, she is the proud mother of two sons, Benjamin and Brandon.

Von Harris

Director of Game Operations

Von Harris enters his second season as Director of Game Operations for the Atlanta Dream and has worked with the team in some capacity since the 2008 innaguaral season.

Harris has previously worked with the Atlanta Hawks on their game operations staff. The proud father of two, is a graduate of Morehouse College and is an avid Superman fan. He is proud to have attended over 2,000 basketball games as a fan or staff in his life.

Nicki Collen

Head Coach

Nicki Collen is entering her first season as Head Coach of the Atlanta Dream.

Prior to landing her first head coaching position, she led the Connecticut Sun to many successful seasons as an assistant coach. Working for 2017 WNBA Coach of the Year Curt Miller, Collen helped the Sun compile an impressive 21-13 record and finished with the fourth-best regular season record in the WNBA, earning the franchise's first postseason appearance since 2012.

Before her position at Connecticut, Collen served as an assistant coach starting in 2014 under coach Karl Smesko at Florida Gulf Coast. She helped guide the Eagles to consecutive 30 win seasons. The 2015-16 team recently completed a 33-6 campaign with a trip to the WNIT Championship game, where it was edged by South Dakota on April 2nd. The 2014-15 Eagles were 31-3 with a 26-game winning streak and an undefeated record in the Atlantic Sun Conference. That team also made history with its first Division I national ranking and its first NCAA Tournament victory, a 75-67 win over 10th-seeded Oklahoma State.

Be enjoyed great success before FGCU as an assistant coach at Arkansas, Louisville, Ball State and Colorado State. She was an assistant coach for nine years at the collegiate level and Collen helped teams reach three NCAA tournaments and five WNITs.

Collen played one year of professional basketball with the BCM Alexandros team in Greece.

As a player at Purdue, Collen was a member of Big 10 championship teams that advanced to the Final Four in 1994 and the Elite Eight in 1995. Collen transferred to Marquette as a junior, competing in two more NCAA tournaments while also securing a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering.

Collen and her husband Tom have three children, Connor, Reese and Logan.

Mike Petersen

Assistant Coach

Mike Petersen is entering his first season as the Atlanta Dream assistant coach. Prior to landing his position with the Atlanta Dream, Petersen was a former women's basketball head coach at North Texas, Wake Forest, Gonzaga, New Mexico State and TCU and the men's basketball associate head coach at Minnesota.

At Wake Forest, Petersen won 125 games which made him the program's all-time winningest coach.

Before college coaching, he had a successful college career of his own. He began his college career at the College of the Redwoods in Eureka, California. After two seasons, he transferred to Northwest Christian College, an NAIA school in Eugene, Oregon. He was inducted into the Northwest Christian College inaugural athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

Petersen and his wife, Patty, have two sons, Riley and Jake.

DARIUS TAYLOR

Assistant Coach

Darius Taylor is entering his first year as an assistant coach for the Atlanta Dream.

Prior to coming to Atlanta, Taylor served as the assistant coach at South Carolina for five seasons. He coached back-to-back SEC Freshman of the Years in Alaina Coates (2013-14) and A'ja Wilson (2014-15). In his final season with the Gamecocks, the team finished the season ranked number 3 overall which was the highest final ranking in program history. That year they won their first SEC Tournament and reached the Final Four for the first time in program history.

Prior to joining the USC staff, he was the manager of community and player programs for the NBA Developmental League (NBADL). He worked with the NBADL for two years promoting personal, professional and social development in the league's players. He devised a comprehensive program that educated players about nutritional health, money management and career development.

Before the NBADL, Taylor spent four seasons with Staley's staff at Temple, helping the Owls to consecutive Atlantic 10 Tournament titles and four NCAA Tournament appearances.

Taylor also has two years of experience with USA Basketball, serving as its assistant director of competitive programs. He started his coaching career as a team leader at the Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools while at the same time serving as an intern at the Big Ten Conference working with marketing and merchandising programs.
A four-year basketball letter winner at the University of Michigan, Taylor was a Big Ten Academic All-American en route to his bachelor of arts in sport management and communications (2000).

Taylor married the former Joni Crenshaw in 2015 and the couple welcomed their first child, Jacie Elise, in 2016.

Jessica Cohen

Athletics Trainer/PT

Jessica Cohen, PT, DPT, MAT, ATC is entering her first season with the Atlanta Dream. She comes to Atlanta via Chicago where she recently graduated from Northwestern University with a doctorate in physical therapy. She has been practicing athletic training for six years. Before joining the Atlanta Dream in 2017, she spent five years working with the Chicago Sky and the Connecticut Sun.

Jessica was a member of the Vanderbilt University Women's Swim Team. She worked with women's basketball, softball, and football while completing her Master's Degree at the University of Arkansas. Jessica treats all orthopedic sports-based injuries specializing in knee, ankle, and shoulder injury. She enjoys working with athletes to safely and effectively return athletes to play as fast as possible. Jessica is passionate about injury prevention in an athletic setting. She received her performance specialist certification from EXOS and is committed to integrating injury prevention and rehab into the athlete's typical workouts.

PORTIA BENBOW

Coordinator of Basketball Operations

Portia Benbow is returning to the Dream after spending three seasons as Director of Basketball Operations for Georgia State's Women's Basketball team. A former college athlete, she played at Armstrong Atlantic State University where she received a B.S. in Psychology. She then went on to receive a M.A. in Clinical Psychology at the University of Indianapolis and later earned her M.S. in Sports Administration from Georgia State.

Benbow started with the Dream in 2013 as a member of the game day staff for Game Operations for four seasons. Prior to working with the Dream, she was the graduate assistant for the University of Indianapolis women's basketball team from 2011-12. Later she served as a graduate assistant for ticket operations and student-athlete development at Georgia State from 2012-14.

Prior to playing basketball at Armstrong Atlantic State University, she served as the women's basketball student manager at Georgia Tech for one year. In addition to working with the Dream, Benbow currently works part-time for the Atlanta Hawks in their Basketball Program department.

Ashley Alexander

Strength Coach

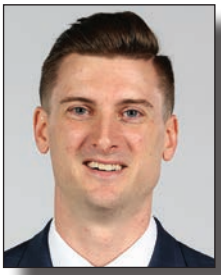
Ashley Alexander is a New Orleans Native who has been in the field of Strength and Conditioning/ Sports Performance for 8 years. She specializes in differentiating training programs to accommodate the needs of athletes at varying skill levels.

Her passion for the development of athletes started early in her Collegiate career at the University of New Orleans. During her tenure at UNO, Ashley was a dedicated member of the Women's basketball team. Out of her personal desire to learn more about the field of strength and conditioning, Ashley took the initiative to intern under UNO's Strength and Conditioning Coach. During this time, Ashley maintained the development of tennis athletes, women's and men's basketball athletes, and football athletes at the University.

Upon graduating with a BS in Human Anatomy and Development, she went on to pursue a Masters degree in exercise and Sports Science at Life University in Marietta Georgia.

While at Life, Ashley was afforded the opportunity to work closely with three of Ga Tech's top women's teams, including women's basketball, women's volleyball, and women's tennis. She interned at GA Tech for 3 plus years, gaining substantial knowledge and ne tuning skills that have molded her practice and shaped her personal mission.

Ashley currently works at Discovery High School in Gwinnett as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for all women's Sports and also serves as the school's Sports Medicine instructor. Once under her leadership, Ashley takes pride in ensuring that her athletes progressively develop and reach their full potential as individuals and as members of a collective team.



Zach Cooper

Director of Scouting & Video Production

Cooper came to Atlanta after spending the last year as the Video Coordinator for the University of Tulsa. Prior to his stint with the Golden Hurricane he spent three seasons at the University of Houston (2014-17) and the Portland Trail Blazers coaching staff during their mini camp in the summer of 2016. Before his time at Houston, Cooper spent two seasons (2012-14) as a Graduate Assistant for the University of Arkansas Women's Basketball program working for current Dream Head Coach Nicki Collen. In those roles, he worked closely with the coaching staffs to create scouting reports of various opponents, and provide advanced analytical data on player tendencies.

Before his stints in coaching, Cooper was a four-year letterwinner forward at Central College in Iowa from 2006-2010. While a student-athlete at Central College, Cooper also served as an intern within the athletic department.

A native of Johnston, Iowa, Cooper graduated from Central College in May of 2010 with a bachelor's degree in marketing before earning his master's education from the University of Arkansas in May of 2014.

Cooper is the son of Mark and Judi Cooper. He has one younger brother, Owen, who currently is a football coach at DII powerhouse Northwest Missouri State.

JUNE 2, 2015: DREAM FINALIZES ROSTER
The Dream finalized its roster on June 1, with the opening night roster of 12 players including nine players who were on the team last year, including the entire front court. Holdovers from the 2014 season include Matee Ajavon, Nadia Colhado, Erika de Souza, Tiffany Hayes, Aneika Henry, Sancho Lyttle, Angel McCoughtry, DeLisha Milton-Jones and Shoni Schimmel. The lone newcomers are veteran guard Roneeka Hodges and rookie guards Samantha Logic and Erica Wheeler.

JUNE 18, 2015: NEW FACES JOIN DREAM
The Dream added a pair of new players on June 17 following the temporary suspensions of Tiffany Hayes and Aneika Henry, who are competing in the 2015 European Games, signing fourth-year guard Sydney Carter and rookie forward Cierra Burdick. Carter has now played for four Eastern Conference teams in four years (also Chicago, Connecticut and Indiana) and her career high of 14 points came while playing against the Dream in Philips Arena last May for the Fever. Burdick was the No. 14 overall pick in the 2015 WNBA Draft by Los Angeles before being waived during camp. In her WNBA debut, Burdick scored 11 points off the bench to help the Dream defeat the Sky on June 19.

JULY 6, 2015: LOGIC DEALT
The Atlanta Dream traded rookie Samantha Logic to San Antonio in exchange for the Silver Stars' 2016 second round draft pick on July 5. Logic, a graduate of the University of Iowa, appeared in four games during her rookie season for the Dream after being selected No. 10 overall in the 2015 WNBA Draft. The 5-9 guard averaged 0.8 points and 0.5 assists while seeing 5.8 minutes of action per contest.

JULY 6, 2015: HAYES RETURNS AS SHE LEFT
Tiffany Hayes returned to action for the Dream on July 5 vs. Seattle for the first time in five games after competing in the 2015 European Games alongside teammate Aneika Henry in Baku, Azerbaijan. In the win over Seattle, Hayes recorded 12 points, which marked the sixth straight game this season she has hit double-figures. The streak ended on July 7 as Hayes finished with seven points in the home loss against Tulsa. Hayes has posted double-figure points in 21 of 26 games for which she has been active.

JULY 12, 2015: BURDICK, CARTER SPARK DREAM AGAINST NEW YORK
Newcomer Sydney Carter and rookie Cierra Burdick each made their first starts of the season in a lineup shake up that sparked the Dream to a 84-76 victory over New York at Philips Arena on July 12. Carter opened at the point and recorded 12 points and four assists, while Burdick registered 12 points, four rebounds and two assists in the win. Both players joined the squad on July 17 as replacements for Tiffany Hayes and Aneika Henry, who missed five contests while competing at the 2015 European Games.

JULY 15, 2015: CHARITY STRIPE DISCREPANCY IN PHOENIX
Possibly the most telling stat from Atlanta's 80-71 setback in Phoenix (7/14) was the totals for each team from the free throw line.The Dream attempted a season-low seven attempts (making six), while the Mercury were rewarded with a total of 30 charity stripe attempts and connected on 27. Phoenix attempted an average of 4.3 free throw attempts for every one by Atlanta in the Dream loss.

ATLANTA DREAM

McCAMISH PAVILION

McCAMISH PAVILION | GENERAL ARENA INFO

McCamish Pavilion (8,600)
965 Fowler St. NW
Atlanta, GA 30318

The Atlanta Dream will play the 2017 season at its new home, McCamish Pavilion on the Georgia Tech campus. The arena opened in 2012, occupying the same footprint on the corner of 10th and Fowler Streets as the former Alexander Memorial Coliseum. The Dream is familiar with McCamish Pavilion, owning a 4-1 overall record in the building, including a 94-85 win over Seattle in the first round of the 2016 WNBA Playoffs.

FACTS:
Capacity: approximately 8,600 (6935 court level, 1665 balcony level)
Grand Entrance: 10th and Fowler Streets.
Other Entrances: West entrance off Fowler Street, East entrance from main arena parking
Features: Center-hung scoreboard and video boards, mezzanine fascia ribbon boards, theatrical lighting, primarily chairback seating, club area

DIRECTIONS FROM NORTH OF ATLANTA
Going South on I-75: Take exit 250 (16th St./14th St./10th St.), and follow through light at 14th St. Stay to the right and follow to 10th St., where the McCamish Pavilion is straight ahead. Turn right to access parking areas other than the main arena lot.

Going South on I-85: Exit at 17th St. (exit 84), stay to the left and follow ramp all the way to 10th St. The McCamish Pavilion will be in front of you. Take right on 10th St., then left on Fowler St. access parking on 8th St. or arena lot.

Going North on I-75/85: Take the 10th Street exit (250). Turn left on 10th Street and after you cross the bridge, the McCamish Pavilion will be on your left. Just past the arena, turn left at Fowler Street (first traffic light). Take first left at 8th Street and follow in.

VIA MARTA
Midtown Marta Station is located on the North/South line.

DISABLED SEATING
McCamish Pavilion has numerous seating options for disabled and accessible seating needs guests. Contact the Atlanta Dream Box Office for more information concerning accessible seating availability and pricing.
